June 2025 | www.rtechgroup.co.in

June unfolds with promise — a season of synergy, growth, and purposeful strides. As the mid-year milestone approaches, R-Tech Group channels its energy into creating developments that are not only robust in structure but rich in value. Each move we make is guided by clarity, confidence, and a deeper commitment to community and commerce.

“Innovate, Elevate, Dominate”

From ground-level planning to skyline-defining execution, every step this June reflects our mission to build with intent. Be it a modern office complex, an inviting retail destination, or a growing township — we remain focused on designing environments that are functional, future-ready, and full of opportunity.

At R-Tech Group, momentum is never accidental — it's engineered. Powered by data-driven decisions and a hands-on leadership approach, we continue to convert vision into value and goals into growth.

June has been a month of forward motion — marked by infrastructure enhancements, client acquisition, and a sharper operational rhythm. With on-site innovations and strategic alliances in motion, we're turning plans into performance. As always, our foundation remains our people — the teams and collaborators who transform ideas into impact. Moving forward, we remain focused on what matters most: building responsibly, growing sustainably, and leading boldly.

Admin Talks

Mr. Rajesh Yadav

Managing Director

"Growth isn't just measured in square feet, but in the value we create for communities, clients, and partners. With successful handovers, brand fit-outs, and a strong response at Palmera Garden, June reflects our mission in motion. Let's keep pushing boundaries while staying rooted in our purpose."

Mr. Achal Agarwal

Executive Director

"With Palmera Garden's expansion and vibrant community events like Dal Bati Churma, we're seeing real engagement on the ground. June reminds us that it's not just about development—it's about building destinations people connect with and feel proud to be part of."

Mr. Deepak Pareek

CFO

"Our financial health remains strong, backed by disciplined leasing strategies and efficient cash flow management. As new inventory opens up and retail activity increases, we're ensuring each move is backed by insight, responsibility, and long-term vision."

Kritika Yadav

VP-Admin & Operations

"From smooth unit handovers to stronger CRM coordination, June was all about reinforcing the backend that powers our frontline success. With better integration across sites and systems, we're building the kind of operational rhythm that drives performance and progress."
