October marked a month of celebration, collaboration, and steady advancement across our projects. As the festive season brought communities together, our spaces continued to grow in activity, engagement, and value.

Spaces that Grow with Communities

From festive décor and cultural gatherings to leasing momentum and project progress, October reflected our belief that every development is meaningful when it connects people. At R-Tech Group, we remain committed to shaping environments that support both business growth and community life.

October was filled with energy and movement across our properties. Our highstreets and commercial centers welcomed increasing footfall, store activities, and festive celebrations that brought warmth and vibrancy to the space.

Internal coordination and operational improvements continued across projects, reinforcing efficiency in our on-ground management and customer experience. Discussions with new brands progressed positively — strengthening our pipeline for the coming quarter.

The News

October saw steady leasing conversations, active negotiations with new brands, and progress in ongoing fit-outs across Bhilwara, Jaipur, Bhiwadi, Alwar, and Bikaner. Community-focused events and festive activities brought increased engagement to several of our properties, reflecting the strong role our spaces play in everyday life.

Our Vision

We are committed to building commercial landscapes that feel alive — where culture and commerce meet seamlessly. By nurturing meaningful brand relationships and thoughtfully planned infrastructure, we continue working towards destinations that inspire pride, create value, and stand the test of time.

Events this month

Diwali Celebration

This October, our properties lit up with festive décor, cultural activities, and community gatherings. The celebrations brought together shop owners, visitors, and staff, creating shared moments of joy and togetherness. The festive spirit across all sites reinforced our commitment to building spaces that feel alive, welcoming, and connected.

Admin Talks

Mr. Rajesh Yadav

Managing Director

"October was a month of celebration and community connection. Our Diwali events across all sites were not just festive gatherings, but moments that strengthened our relationships with tenants, customers, and our teams. As we enter the last quarter, let us continue to work with unity, clarity, and purpose."

Mr. Achal Agarwal

Executive Director

"From ongoing construction progress to festive planning and execution, October required coordination across multiple teams — and it was delivered well. Ensuring site readiness during celebrations showcased our commitment to both operational discipline and community engagement."

Mr. Deepak Pareek

CFO

"This month reflected stability and sustained performance. With rentals streamlining and brand engagements improving, we are moving toward a stronger revenue curve. The festive footfall and increased inquiries also signal positive business sentiment going forward."

Kritika Yadav

VP-Admin & Operations

"The success of October lies in the teamwork behind the scenes — from event organization to daily follow-ups and site coordination. The month demonstrated how collaboration across departments can turn plans into meaningful experiences. Let's carry this spirit ahead with consistency and clear communication."
