Nov 2025 | www.rtechgroup.co.in

November unfolded as a month of progress, reflection, and preparation for the season ahead. Across our developments, steady growth continued with a focus on strengthening operations, partnerships, and on-ground experiences.

Building Destinations with Purpose

From streamlined operations to advancing brand discussions and improved on-site management, November reinforced our commitment to creating commercial spaces that are efficient, welcoming, and future-ready. Each step taken this month contributes to long-term value for our partners and communities.

November witnessed consistent momentum across R-Tech Group properties. Operational enhancements and coordinated efforts across teams helped improve daily functioning and overall ambience at our commercial assets.

Footfall trends remained encouraging, supported by active retail participation and customer engagement. Simultaneously, focused internal planning and reviews helped strengthen execution strategies as we move toward the year-end period.

The News

The greatest news is here as we proudly welcome ZOCA Café to R-Tech Emporio. Redefining comfort with its aesthetic ambience, ZOCA adds a refreshing café experience to our vibrant retail destination.

Digital Spotlight: Influencer Engagements

Influencer shoots were conducted across multiple R-Tech Group projects, capturing the vibrancy and unique character of our spaces. These collaborations highlighted our developments as lifestyle-driven destinations, blending retail, leisure, and community experiences. The shoots enhanced digital visibility and engagement, showcasing our projects through authentic and creative storytelling.

Admin Talks

Mr. Rajesh Yadav

Managing Director

“November was a month of consolidation and preparation. With steady operational progress and ongoing brand discussions, our focus remained on strengthening the foundation for long-term growth. As we move closer to year-end, discipline, consistency, and purpose will continue to guide our efforts.”

Mr. Achal Agarwal

Executive Director

“This month involved focused execution — from managing ongoing fit-outs and redesign initiatives to ensuring smooth daily operations across sites. The emphasis on safety, maintenance, and readiness is helping us maintain standards while preparing for upcoming activity.”

Mr. Deepak Pareek

CFO

“November reflected controlled operations and positive movement across assets. Improved coordination, active leasing conversations, and stable footfall trends indicate a healthy outlook. Our emphasis remains on sustainable revenue growth supported by strong operational fundamentals.”

Kritika Yadav

VP-Admin & Operations

“November highlighted the importance of structured follow-ups and cross-team coordination. From operational improvements to supporting leasing and digital initiatives, the month reinforced how consistent communication and attention to detail help strengthen overall project performance. Carrying this momentum forward will be key as we approach the year-end phase.”
